CORAM: SMT.V.K.TAHILRAMANI,J.
DATE : MAY 03, 2007

P.C.

1. Heard the learned advocate for the applicant and the learned A.P.P. for the State.

2. The applicant is seeking bail in C.R.No.85 of 2006 of Akkalkot South Police Station. The said case is mainly under Section 302 of IPC.

3. It is the case of the prosecution that the applicant was working as Pujari and the deceased who is young boy, used to play in the temple. The deceased used to eat sugarcane in the temple and used to keep remains of sugarcane in the temple.

It is the prosecution case that on account of this, the applicant had grudge against the young boy. The only material against the applicant is last seen. There is no other material against the applicant and the circumstance of motive prima facie, appears to be a little far fetched. In this view of the matter, I am inclined to grant bail to the applicant.

4. The applicant to be released on bail in the sum of Rs.25,000/- with one or two sureties to make up the said amount in C.R.No.85 of 2006 of Akkalkot South Police Station. The applicant shall not enter Akkotkot Taluka till further orders, except for the purposes of attending the trial Court. Before being released on bail, the applicant shall inform the address that the applicant is going to reside while he is on bail and the applicant shall report to the nearest police station to that address once in a week till conclusion of the trial.

5. Application is disposed of.
